

REMARKS

Reconsideration of the present application is respectfully requested. Claims 1-18 and 22-27 have been withdrawn due to the restriction requirement mailed on 6/15/2006. Claims 19-21 have been amended. Claims 28-36 are newly added. No new matter has been added.

Claims 19 and 21 stand objected to due to informalities. Claims 19-21 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) based on U.S. Patent no. 6,405,037 of Rossmann et al. ("Rossmann") in view of U.S. Patent no. 6,208,839 of Davani et al.

The objections to claims 19 and 21 are believed to be moot in view of the amendments to those claims.

Applicants respectfully traverse the prior art rejections. The amendments to the claims are made only to place the claims in what Applicants consider to be better form. The amendments are not made in response to the rejections or to comply with any statutory requirement of patentability, since no such amendments are believed to be necessary, for the reasons which follow.

Applicants respectfully traverse the rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a), because Rossmann is not effective as prior art. Section 103(c) of 35 U.S.C. provides: "Subject matter developed by another person, which qualifies as prior art only under one or more of subsections (e), (f), and (g) of section 102 of this title, shall not preclude patentability under this section where the subject matter and the claimed invention were, at the time the claimed invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.”

Note that the present invention is a continuation of application no. 09/161,103, filed on September 25, 1998 (now abandoned), which is a continuation-in-part of U.S. Patent application no. 08/987,346, filed on December 9, 1997, now issued as U.S. Patent no. 6,065,120. Therefore, the present application is entitled to an effective filing date at least as early as September 25, 1998. Rossmann, however, was issued after that date, on June 11, 2002. Therefore, Rossmann could only be effective as prior art, if at all, under 35 U.S.C. § 103/102(e).

Further, at the time the present invention was made, the subject matter which the Examiner cites in Rossmann and the present invention were both assigned to, or subject to an obligation of assignment to, the same entity, namely Unwired Planet, Inc. The successor in interest of Unwired Planet, Inc. (due to a subsequent corporate name change and merger) is Openwave Systems Inc., which is the current assignee of both Rossmann and the present application. (On 4/19/1999, Unwired Planet Inc. changed its name to Phone.com Inc., and on 11/17/2000, Phone.com Inc. merged with another entity to form Openwave Systems Inc.)

Note that the assignments in the parent of the present application (application no. 09/161,103, now abandoned) also apply to any continuations of that application, and therefore, apply to the present application. Those assignments are recorded at reel/frame nos. 9491/0044 and 012442/0705. Copies of the applicable Notices of Recordation are enclosed. The assignments of Rossmann and other documents relating to the chain of title of Rossmann are recorded at reel/frame nos. 8929/0568, 012475/0789 and 012428/0500 (copy of abstract of title enclosed).

Thus, at the time the present invention was made, the subject matter which the Examiner cites in Rossmann and the present invention were both assigned to, or subject to an obligation of assignment to, the same entity (Unwired Planet, Inc.). Therefore, Rossmann is not effective as prior art, due to the operation of 35 U.S.C. § 103(c). Therefore, any rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 103 based on Rossmann is improper as to the present application, and Applicants respectfully request that the present rejection be withdrawn.

Dependent Claims

In view of the above remarks, a specific discussion of the dependent claims is considered to be unnecessary. Therefore, Applicants' silence regarding any dependent claim is not to be interpreted as agreement with, or acquiescence to, the rejection of such claim or as waiving any argument regarding that claim.

Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, the present application is believed to be in condition for allowance, and such action is earnestly requested.

If there are any additional charges/credits, please charge/credit our deposit account no. 02-2666.

Respectfully submitted,
BLAKELY, SOKOLOFF, TAYLOR & ZAFMAN LLP
